June 28, 2016

Cummings & Lockwood is pleased to announce that it has been recognized by Chambers and Partners in their inaugural global High Net Worth Guide -- aimed at the international private wealth market -- as having one of the leading trusts and estates practices in Connecticut, ranking at the top of band 1.

Several Cummings & Lockwood trusts and estates attorneys were also recognized as "notable practitioners," including Howard ("Terry") S. Tuthill III, Co-Chair of the Firm's Private Clients Group and based in Stamford, Paul L. Bourdeau who is based in West Hartford, and Douglas H. Olin who is based in Greenwich.

Chambers and Partners, a U.K.-based publisher of expert legal guides, has dedicated the last 25 years to researching and ranking the world's best lawyers. "We are very excited to have been named one of the top private clients practices in Connecticut," noted Jonathan B. Mills, Firm-wide Chairman and Managing Director of Cummings & Lockwood.

According to Chambers and Partners: Cummings & Lockwood's private clients team advises clients on their estate plans including generational wealth transfer and preservation, tax and probate litigation, philanthropic giving and business succession planning. "I think they're good at everything," a client source enthuses, adding: "First and foremost the legal expertise is absolutely excellent, we feel confident we are getting first-rate legal advice. The attorneys are well trained but they are continually educating themselves, they're very keen on understanding new trends. The client service is unmatched, we feel that the quality is consistently, exceptionally high across the firm."

Multiple sources commend the Firm's talented group of estate planning lawyers, with one interviewee saying: "They're all technically very strong in their fields, they communicate well as a group, just a pleasure to work with." Another commentator adds: "It's as good as it gets."

According to Chambers and Partners:

Howard ("Terry") Tuthill provides his clients with estate planning and settlement advice, planning for the preservation of wealth, fulfilling philanthropic giving goals and business succession planning. A fellow lawyer enthuses: "He is an incredibly hard worker. If you ask him a question about any new development in the law he will know it," adding: "I have a lot of respect for him as a lawyer." Another source praises Tuthill for being "a very good, sophisticated trusts and estates lawyer."

The "very knowledgeable" Paul Bourdeau is a "very skilled practitioner" who is "very well known." He has been at the firm for over 30 years and founded its West Hartford office. He advises clients on estate plans, business succession planning, wealth transfer strategies, charitable giving and estate settlement. Bourdeau also serves as a

He's a very positive, can-do kind of person."* "Aside from being the smartest man I know," states fellow lawyer, "he is a very, very good lawyer, competent on all the tax issues and with very sophisticated planning."

Douglas Olin advises his clients on estate plans, including wealth preservation strategies, philanthropic giving and business succession planning. He has experience with litigation matters arising from fiduciary, probate and tax issues. Olin is "an up and comer" and a "very good lawyer," sources say.
