

MARY BETH CRAWFORD, PRINCIPAL IN CUMMINGS & LOCKWOOD'S BONITA SPRINGS OFFICE, TO BE HONORED BY THE WOMEN'S FOUNDATION OF COLLIER COUNTY

March 14, 2017

Cummings & Lockwood is pleased to announce that Mary Beth Crawford, a Principal in the Firm's Private Clients Group and partner-in-charge of the Firm's Bonita Springs office, has been named among the 2017 Women of Initiative by The Women's Foundation of Collier County for her charitable and civic contributions.

A trusts and estates attorney at Cummings & Lockwood, Mary Beth has also worked tirelessly for many charitable, civic and professional organizations, including Angels Undercover of Collier County, David Lawrence Center & Foundation, Center for the Arts of Bonita Springs, American Red Cross, Speakers Assembly of Southwest Florida, Leadership Bonita and the Junior League of Fort Myers. In addition, she has been actively involved in the Florida Bar Association, Collier County Bar Association and Collier County Women's Bar Association.

"We are very proud of Mary Beth and are thrilled that she will be receiving this honor," noted Jonathan B. Mills, Firm-wide Chairman and Managing Director of Cummings & Lockwood. "She is not only an excellent attorney, but also a woman of character and substance who brings strong leadership skills, high ethical standards, and a passion and enthusiasm to all that she does both personally and professionally."

Each year, The Women's Foundation of Collier County honors ten local women leaders who, through their leadership styles, are an inspiration to all women seeking to make a difference through philanthropic and civic engagement. The 2017 Women of Initiative will be recognized for their achievements during the organization's annual luncheon to be held on March 31, 2017 at The Ritz-Carlton, Naples Beach Resort.
