

12 CUMMINGS & LOCKWOOD ATTORNEYS HAVE BEEN RECOGNIZED AS CONNECTICUT SUPER LAWYERS AND RISING STARS IN 2022

July 28, 2022

Cummings & Lockwood is pleased to announce that 12 Cummings & Lockwood attorneys have been selected Connecticut Super Lawyers in 2022. Each year, no more than five percent of the lawyers in the state are selected by the research team at Super Lawyers to receive this honor.

Principals Laura W. Beck (Greenwich), Daniel G. Johnson (Stamford), and Paul L. Bourdeau and Kelley Galica Peck (West Hartford) have been recognized by Super Lawyers in Estate & Probate Law. Associates Katherine C. Gent and Steven J. Georgiades (Greenwich), Elizabeth A. Falkoff (Stamford), and Brianna L. Marquis (West Hartford) were recognized as Connecticut Rising Stars in Estate & Probate Law in 2022, as well.

In addition, John W. Cannavino, a Litigation Principal in the firm's Stamford office, was recognized as a Super Lawyer in 2022, and David T. Martin, also a Litigation Principal in the Stamford office, was recognized as a Connecticut Rising Star in 2022.

Finally, Jonathan B. Mills, a Principal in the firm's Commercial Real Estate Group, was recognized as a Super Lawyer in 2022. Scott T. Witthuhn, Counsel in the firm's Commercial Real Estate Group, was also recognized as a Connecticut Rising Star in 2022 by Super Lawyers.

"We are very proud that our attorneys have been recognized as preeminent practitioners by Super Lawyers again this year," said Laura W. Beck, Chairman and Managing Director of Cummings & Lockwood.
