Our Estate Planning Process

Our attorneys work with you to design and implement the appropriate long-term strategy for your estate plan. Our process involves the following steps:

Step 1: Information Gathering -- Documenting your personal, professional and financial situation

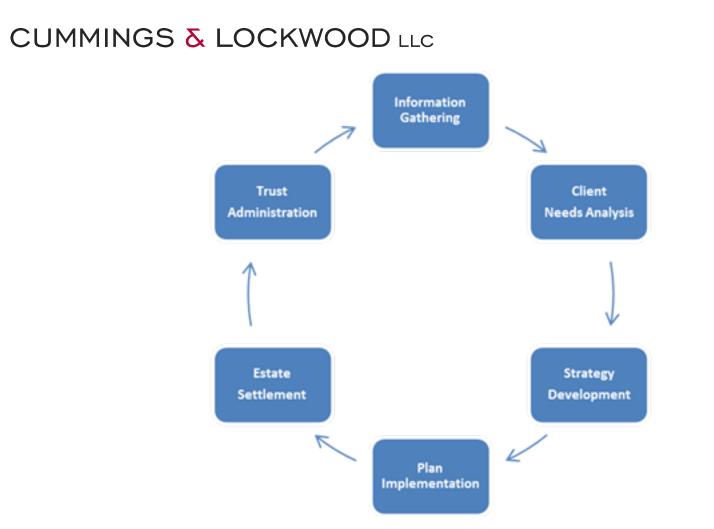

Step 2: Client Needs Analysis -- Understanding your needs, concerns and objectives

Step 3: Strategy Development -- Providing tax-efficient estate planning recommendations based on your specific goals and needs

Step 4: Plan Implementation -- Preparing the appropriate legal documents

Step 5: Estate Settlement -- Handling probate and death tax matters

Step 6: Trust Administration -- Assisting with the proper administration of trusts for your beneficiaries

Regular Estate Planning Reviews

Changes in the law, new opportunities and myriad life events can all affect your estate plan. By performing regular reviews, we can help you make adjustments to your estate plan as necessary to ensure that your plan continues to match your future goals in a tax-efficient manner.

Coordination and Collaboration

We routinely work with our clients' accountants, wealth advisors, financial planners and insurance professionals in order to recommend the most appropriate and effective estate planning solutions. Our trusts and estates attorneys also collaborate with other Cummings & Lockwood attorneys who can address your varied corporate, finance, litigation and/or real estate needs.

If you are interested in developing a comprehensive estate plan based on your particular situation, contact a Cummings & Lockwood trusts and estates attorney for assistance.
